Presenters and Topics

TOPIC: CURRENT ISSUES IN RESPECT OF AVOS

Magistrate Ron Maiden, Toronto Local Court

Well known to many of us Magistrate Maiden will be speaking to current issues that abound in relation to AVOS.

TOPIC: AVO APPLICATIONS

WILLIAM BUXTON, Barrister, Sir Owen Dixon Chambers

William has extensive experience appearing as advocate in the Local, Children's and District Courts including the following particularly in relation to criminal matters.

Prior to being called to the Bar he worked for 5 years as a solicitor for the Aboriginal Legal Service NSW/ACT Ltd in Western NSW, and for three years as a senior solicitor for the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions. He brings the ability to analyse, prepare and present a case with the benefit of significant experience both as a defence lawyer and as a prosecutor. William's experience as a prosecutor provides a unique insight into police methodology and investigation as well as prosecutorial practice and procedure.

Seminars and other CPD activities are not accredited by the Newcastle Law Society or the Law Society of New South Wales. Under the CPD Rules, if a particular educational activity is relevant to your immediate or long term needs in relation to your professional development and practice of the law, then you should claim one "unit" for each hour of attendance, refreshment breaks not included. The annual requirement is ten (10) units each year from 1 April to 31 March. Further information can be found here:
